Speaking about the mind, let me refer to the second chapter of the Bhagwad Gita. In one of the shlokas, it says, "Let your concern be with action alone, and never with the fruits of action. Do not let the results of action be your motive, and do not be attached to inaction. "No doubt, you will have to surmount many difficulties and face many defeats in life, but never let yourselves be defeated in your quest for knowledge and in search of a new life and achieving your goals.

Before I conclude, I want to express that I feel a tremendous sense of excitement and anticipation as we embark on this journey together. Best wishes for the work I know you will do to make this wonderful institution even better.

Pro Chancellor's Message

Dear Students,

Are you a dancer? Do you wish to study dance and make a career out of it? Then you are at the right School Dr. D. Y. Patil School of Liberal Arts.

Dance is a global art form, and most countries and cultures have their own traditions. By studying here, you'll adopt elements of style and technique and become a more versatile, creative, and original dancer and choreographer. You can specialize in dance forms like Kathak and Bharatnatyam or continue as a performing artist. And teaching you these various art forms will be famous exponents who are known across the country. As for the courses, they will teach you about the origin, culture, and history of the dance form. For example, in the regular Bharatnatyam master degree Programme is steeped in rich cultural heritage. It is based on the age-old Natya shastra, Bharat Muni's Natya Shastra, and the devadasi system which was practiced 2000 years ago. Likewise, the Nritya Yoga course is patented and it is for the first time will be taught globally through this university. Also, we are offering for the first time a university-level course based on the dancer's thesis. It will be a combination of the kinetics of Bharatnatyam and the Ashtanga yoga sutra by saint Patanjali.

Most dance programs are designed to improve your technique and performance. They'll also encourage you to get creative with teaching and choreography and help you understand the science and theory behind the movement. You'll explore a range of dance styles and consider how they've been influenced by historical and cultural forces. This program will help in physical, mental, and spiritual well-being through the technique of Bharatnatyam and the aesthetics of the Patanjali yoga sutra. All the other programs are well researched and planned to suit the needs of the students.

With a degree in dance, you can work in theaters both in your home country and abroad, or you can teach dance to children and adults, or perhaps work with dance therapy. Dance programs allow students to study their passion and hone their craft. It's a great course for students looking to break into the field of performing arts.

You will work on your dance every day, learn about the body in movement, about dance as an art form and craft, and about dance's interplay with music. You will have courses on the history of dance, cultural history, analysis, aesthetics, and critique, all depending on where you choose to study.

Through class experience, guest lecturers, instructor collaboration, and cultural exchange we strive to instill an intimate knowledge of dance, culture, art, and the connections among them. Ultimately our students learn to make connections by themselves between lived experience and dance technique as well as between their own cultural knowledge and the changing world around them.

So, all the best to the students of the Class of 2024-25. One morning, you will wake to find this moment fifty years in the rearview mirror. My hope for you is that the intervening decades are filled with friendship and love, and a lifetime of purpose that the arc of your achievements carries you toward joy and that the meaning of your life becomes clear to you. In the meantime, give to this wonderful place at least as much as you expect to get out of it.

All the best,

Director's Message

Dr. D. Y. Patil Vidyapeeth, believes in excellence in the field of Art and education teaching. It holds the fraternity of teachers to their utmost credits to impart lessons which will create a sound civilization. To nurture a global torch bearers in the field of Art and Aesthetics artisans. Dance nurtures reality of life and brings forth the fundamentals in the form of presentation. Nritya is a way closer to divinity. It creates exemplary work to make the audience understand the underlying feelings. The emotions are real and have their origin in society. The Dance emphasizes on body gestures, verbal communication, articulations and also absolute happiness. Abhinaya in Dance helps in creating the act from abstract to real.

The ornamentation and costume plays a very crucial part in Dance. 'Katha' (story), is made of two words - 'Ka' in Upanishads stands for Brahma. It also means 'Gyana' or wisdom. In literal sahitya 'Ka' refers to 'Sukh', a 'pure bliss'. In Indian culture Dance is considered to be a link between God and Audience. The yogic movement create calmness of mind.

The objective of the School of Liberal Art is to preserve, promote and propagate rich cultural ethos and give it to the world. India has rich cultural heritage like dance is a unique platform of any civilization. It combines the Vedic culture with the most modern techniques to showcase the spirituality leading to calmness in our minds. The sattvik bhava in a dancer carries his / her own art to give the world a base to create positive sound and energy. Dance movement and technique brings joy to the Artist as well as the audience. It has been in our tradition to worship Gods in temples, but an artist prays and worships Art to reach God. The Yogic patterns in hand gestures symbolizes healing and meditative effect through Dance. The Gyan mudra resonates peace in our mind .

Dance also affirms and reinforces the Brahmical origin. The artists use Nritya as a vehicle to convey knowledge of Dharma to the common man.

Nritya has its own origin in our Vedas and Samhitas. The aesthetically blended art-form speaks its volume when an artist showcases the fineries of movement intricately woven into rhythmic spell. Each syllable spoken or danced creates its own resonance which soothe the mind. Psychologically speaking the words and aesthetics bring comfort to mind .

The School of Liberal arts is a centre for exemplary field in creating capable sound Artists with strong theoretical and practical knowledge. The programme consists of Kathak Dance and Bharatnatyam to explore experience and experiment to bring forth the ecstasy of Indian Dances.

The motive behind this programme is to create sound professionals. The cultural media can generate jobs and hire and absorb these professionals. Today's Art and Aesthetic must be given a good chance to generate vocational sources. The art helps the artist to be placed in a very respectable position. It promotes professionalism and helps in individuals to earn a decent income. In recent times organizing Symposium, International level research paper presenters, Talk shows, can create more avenues as job prospects. In today's world when there is a tough competition for existence in professional world, this programme comes forward as an excellent programme.
